Yesterday was a big day in the Maryville chautauqua and nearly every seat was occupied during each entertainment. Today it is starting off just as well, if not better, for the famous Kryl band is the drawing card. Yesterday it was the Orphean Musical club, Dr. W. B. Dickinson, Victor Murdock and Arthur Kachel. Each good in the line chosen.

Today the chautauqua started off at 9 o'clock this morning with an entertainment for the young folks in the nature of a "make-believe" trip to Europe under the direction of Miss Francis Knofler, supervisor of the Junior chautauqua.

Then came an address on "Solving the Rural Church Problems," by H. R. McKeen.

"Vic" Murdock Urges Peace.

The red headed Progressive newspaper publisher and former congressman of Kansas—Victor Murdock—drew down the house yesterday afternoon in a rather witty, entertaining address, yet permeated all through with a serious vein on national matters which concern all of us as individuals and as a whole.

Mr. Murdock won loud applause when he said that it was the business of every man and woman to see to it that this country keeps out of the European war. He talked about the new enemies of liberty and found them to be privilege and avarice.

In speaking of "the interests" he said that the new generation of American wealthy families was different from the founders of our big houses. The wealth of these houses was not dissipating it was accumulating at dangerous rates along hard, narrow and bitter lines.

The speaker took a tremendous fall out of the archaic customs of the senate, and he told graphically his experience in saving five million dollars annually from the postal freight bill. It was this work that brought fame to Congressman Murdock, and he had an abundance of inside information to impart.

In conclusion, Mr. Murdock said that we ought to correct certain bad habits foremost among which was the habit of the partisan mind, and the other habit of taking things for granted.

Discusses Politics of Future.

In a little "on the side" talk yesterday with some friends Murdock got into a discussion of politics—the subjects he likes above all else. The gist of the talk was that Vic Murdock believes the Republicans next year will nominate either Senator Weeks of Massachusetts or William Howard Taft for president while the Democrats will place Wilson again in the ring.

Vic likewise expressed the belief that William Jennings Bryan might follow Roosevelt's plan and start a new party from the folds of the Democratic rank, with the plea for peace as the big plank of the platform.

Then the red headed Kansan vouchsafed the opinion that the Progressives would again turn to Roosevelt or perhaps Hiram Johnson of California, as the man for the presidency.

Musical Preludes Good.

The musical preludes yesterday were again different. The Orphean male quartet appeared yesterday afternoon and night, with W. G. Laye, first tenor, E. H. Dennis, second tenor, E. W. Crumbaker, baritone and reader and V. F. Henry, bass and crayon artist.

Their entire program was first class and delighted the large audiences. The reading in the afternoon by Mr. Crumbaker was a musical monologue entitled, "O Memory."

The quartet's rendition of Bride-man's Twenty-Third Psalm will linger long in the public memory. Besides their vocal work, the company has a brass quartet—cornet, melophone and first and second valve trombones.

At night they rendered Sawyer's "The Trumpets," and closed their evening prelude with three interesting crayon sketches put on the easel by Mr. Henry during a monologue. One was "A Scene in the Country," another was a humorous sketch of a lady's hat "gradescaping" the view in church, and the sketch of a lake shore in moonlight closed the prelude with a beautiful rendition of Root's "The Old Canoe."

Interpreted "The Music Master."

Arthur Kachel gave a monologue interpretation of "The Music Master" last night, instead of "The Melting Pot" as announced on the program. Mr. Kachel is master of his art. Without scenery or costume he peopled the stage with fourteen different characters and with scenes transpiring on two continents, and never once did his characters merge.

On account of its length a number of persons attending last night, tired of the interpretation, but not because of any inferiority in the work of Mr. Kachel.

This morning, applied Christianity had the stage at the chautauqua tent.

H. R. McKeen, a minister who himself has largely solved the problem in a remarkable personal experience, spoke on "Solving the Rural Church Problems." Mr. McKeen is a forceful personality, a pleasing rapid-fire speaker, a man of ideals and of large experience in his chosen field.

Mr. McKeen assured his audience (Continued on page 2.)

TEUTONS PUSH ON

GERMANS CONTINUE DRIVE ON RUSSIAN HORDE IN POLAND.

OCCUPY EAST VISTULA

Serock, North of Warsaw and Forts Near Novogeorgievsk Captured—Heavy Fighting in Caucasus.

London, Aug. 9.—The Germans continue to make progress in their efforts to cut off the Russian retreat from the Polish salient. They have commenced an attack on the fortresses of Kovno and Osowetz, which are among the obstacles to be overcome to reach the railway running from Warsaw through Vilna and Dvinsk to Petrograd. They have taken the minor fortress of Jerock at the junction of the Narw and the Bug and have crossed the Vistula near Warsaw. Farther south General Woyrsch is advancing eastward, but Field Marshal Mackensen is being stubbornly resisted and apparently making slow progress.

On the whole, the daring scheme mapped out by the Germans as a sequel to the capture of Warsaw—the destruction of the Russian army—is unfolding slowly.

With the three main railways, besides those built since the war, in his hands, it is believed in military circles here that Grand Duke Nicholas will be able to extricate his Warsaw army. The events in the east, however, will continue to rivet the attention of the world for some time to come.

The Germans have gained minor successes in the Argonne forests, where the crown prince's army has been trying for weeks to find a weak spot in the French defenses, but their efforts to recover lost trenches on the Linkeop, in the Vosges, is declared to have cost them dearly.

There has been rather heavy fighting in the Caucasus between the Russians and the Turks, but the official reports are contradictory.

Balkan Parleys.

There is much interest in the diplomatic negotiations in which indicate that Serbia at last is willing to cede Macedonia to Bulgaria, but that the Greek government is opposing any suggestion that it should return Kavala, the seaport in the vilayet of Saloniki, to Bulgaria. It is thought, however, that this opposition may be changed when M. Venizelos returns to power, which is expected when the Greek parliament reassembles early in September.

ELMO CHAUTAUQUA OPENS TODAY

Dr. Charles F. Sheldon, Author of "In His Steps," Will Appear During Week.

The Elmo chautauqua opened for a six-days "run." A fairly large crowd attended the attractions today and everything points to a fine attendance throughout the week, it is said.

The star attraction of the Elmo chautauqua will be a lecture by Dr. Charles F. Sheldon of Topeka, Kan., author of "In His Steps" and several other well known books of a religious nature.

TO HASTEN FREIGHT PARCELS.

Pennsylvania Railroad to Send Shipments From East Without Delay.

Hereafter when an eastern shipper has a small package of freight to go to any of the more important cities in the northwest or in the Missouri river territory or in the southwest, he will be able to send it in a car that will go straight through to destination without the package being transferred to any other car.

The Pennsylvania railroad has inaugurated a practice of sending through cars of merchandise freight by its Star-Union line daily from New York to far western points, regardless of the quantity of freight offered for shipment.

Heretofore small consignments of merchandise from New York to far western points have been transferred at various junction points enroute, thereby causing delay. The inauguration of the improved service by the Pennsylvania means that hereafter merchants will be assured of a quicker and safer transportation service than they have hitherto enjoyed.

DRAINAGE BOARD TO MEET

Improvers of 102 River Channel Will Confer Wednesday Relative to Resuming Work.

The 102 river drainage district board will meet at the courthouse here at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning to discuss propositions relative to resuming work on the dredging south of Pickering. The call for the meeting was made today by the officials of the board.

The principal topic to be discussed is to determine if the owners of the dredge boat—The Marion Steam Shovel company of Marion, O.—shall raise and aright the now overturned and wrecked dredge boat, or whether the drainage district board will have that to do.

Work on arighting and repairing the boat was begun today by a force of men.

J. E. CAMERON OUT

HEAD OF NORMAL AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT RESIGNS.

R. A. KINNAIRD GOES IN

Leader in Aggie Work at State School 5 Years Accepts Position in Iowa—Effective September 1.

Cameron, of the agricultural and biology department of the State Normal school, has resigned his position, effective September 1, to accept a position with the Iowa State University at Iowa City as associate teacher in general science work in the education department and also in the botany department.

Mr. Cameron is a graduate of that university as is also Mrs. Cameron, who lived at that place before coming to Maryville.

Mr. Cameron has been in charge of the agriculture department at the State Normal School since the opening of the institution five years ago. His work has been very creditable and he has built up the agriculture department here that is far superior to that of any of the other Normal schools in the state.

R. A. Kinnaird, who has been connected with the State Normal school for a year, will be the head of the agriculture department. A successor will be selected soon by the board of regents to take the place of Mr. Cameron.

SUN IN ECLIPSE TOMORROW

Old Sol Will Be Darkened But Not in America—Friday Is Thirteenth.

The sun will be in total eclipse tomorrow night in southeastern Asia, southeastern Africa, Borneo, Java, Madagascara, eastern Japan and the Philippine Islands, but not in America, except in the Hawaiian Islands and in Alaska. It is the second and last solar eclipse of the year, the first having occurred February 13. It was not visible in America either.

Another peculiarity will come this week, and the only one of the year 1915. Next Friday will be the thirteenth of August, which signifies to many that any attempt at action that day will result in failure. Railroads also anticipate a decrease in travel that day, especially by the superstitious.

TO GIVE FREE ENTERTAINMENT.

A free lecture on "Conception Abbey and Higher Education" will be given tonight at the Johnson opera house Burlington Junction, by the Rev. Father Patrick Cummins of Conception Abbey.

FEDERALS WIN 2-1

MAKES WINNING RUN ON "WALK" STEAL AND OVERTHROW.

MAY STAY WITH TEAM

Rapps of Western League Only Scorer. May Remain—Willey Fanned 17—Scott Makes Good Play.

A walk, a bery steal and a wild throw to second to prevent the steal, which resulted in an extra two bases, brought Rapps home, and thereby won for the Maryville Federals yesterday afternoon the game with the St. Joseph Tip Tops by a score of 2 to 1. It was a play not often seen, and would have been called a "bonhead" by some fans, had Rapps not succeeded. The base on balls was merely extended to second without a halt at first.

Willey, pitching for the Feds struck out 17 men, but even at that was hit four times, two of them resulting in the lone run for the visitors in the seventh inning, with two men down. Wasma, pitching for the Tip Tops, struck out but five men, and was hit the same number of times.

The game was well attended, in fact the grand stand and bleachers were filled to overflowing. It was a good game too, there being few errors and no "bone head" plays to mar.

Rapps Gets Both Runs.

Rapps, the man who made the winning run in the eighth inning, comes from three seasons' work in the Western league, he being recently suspended by Jack Holland, manager of the St. Joseph Drummers, following an injury.

Rapps will probably play with the Feds next Sunday, when they meet the Stanberry Red Sox, on the home court.

It was Rapps who made both scores in the game yesterday, though the first was with the assistance of Richardson, who got a two-bagger, following Rapps' two-base hit.

Marqui made the only run for the visitors in the seventh inning, when he got a single and was brought home by a two-bagger by Gears. They also got a man on third in the fifth inning, when Tilson let a "grass cutter" through his legs on first and Wasma made a two-bagger. A strike out saved the day.

Scotty Makes Good Play.

A mighty good play was made by Scott, playing short stop, yesterday, when he picked a line drive off Wasma back of second and threw the batter out at the initial sack.

The line up of the Feds was: Morris, 1; Tilson, 1b; Carmichael, cf; Rapps, 3b; Richardson, c; Scott, ss; Miller, 2b; Ernst, rf; Willey, p.

The line up of the Tip Tops was: Rudy, 1; Slater, 2b; Stewart, 3b; Jennings, ss; Hopper, cf; Marqui, c; Gears, rf; Wasma, p; Hall, 1b.

The score: R. H. E. Tip Tops 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 1 4 1 Maryville 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 2 5 3

RINGLING SHOWS MAY COME

If Free Site Is Granted Maryville Is to See Big Show Next Month—Advance Man Here.

Ringling Brothers shows will appear in Maryville early in September if a free site is furnished, according to notice received by the Commercial Club officials. The cost would not be large it is believed and the chance for bringing the attraction here now appears to be good.

A discussion of the proposition was the principal topic at the weekly meeting of the board of directors of the club at noon today. No definite action was taken by the directors as a body, but a committee was appointed to look into the matter and determine if such a proposition could be well met.

Maryville has been passed up by the larger shows for the last ten years, or since the Ringling Brothers were victims of many suits caused by the collapse of their show tent east of the Burlington tracks, during a severe storm.

Mr. Pettit, advance man for the Ringling Brothers shows, was in Maryville today to determine what the Commercial Club could do in this respect, and conferred with them at the meeting. He and the special committee will "feel out" the situation slightly this afternoon and determine if the business men would be willing to grant the request for free site and partially free license.

As it now stands, it would cost Ringling Brothers $175 license fee alone to appear here. The city charges a license of $100 for a show of that size while the county would receive $75.

HER BROTHER GETS IRON CROSS.

Miss Marie Meyer, Student at Normal Last Year, Hears of Award to Navy Captain.

In a recent letter from her brother, Ernest Meyer, who is a captain in the German navy, stationed at Kiel, Miss Marie Meyer, a student at the State Normal school here last year and now attending the University of Missouri, was informed that the iron cross had been awarded to him, according to the University Missourian of Columbia. Probably owing to the strict censorship in Germany, the reason for the award was not stated.

Miss Meyer has a number of relatives in the war. Two of her cousins were killed at the front recently.

The Missourian also says that Miss Meyer has filed her declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States, being the first one ever filed by a woman in Boone county.

The Nodaway county textbook commission, comprised of County School Superintendent Bert Cooper, Dean G. H. Colbert and George W. Somerville, principal of the Clearmont high school, is meeting today to select three text books for the grades and several text books for the high schools of Nodaway county. They are to be used in the term which begins next month.

A large number of representatives of publishers of school text books, have been in conference here with members of the commission several days.

A language, a grammar and a set of writing books, are to be selected for the various grade schools of the county by the commission. The ones in use now were adopted nine years ago.

It has not been definitely decided which high school books will be replaced, but it is reported there may be several changes made.

The commission expects to conclude its work late this afternoon.

The concert this afternoon by Bohumir Kryl's concert band, is being well attended. It is the only attraction of this afternoon or night, but at that it perhaps is the most attractive of all, and not only to the so-called music lovers, for anyone can enjoy Kryl's band.

With eight clarinets, six cornets, three French horns, three slide trombones, one euphonium, two double B brass horns, one string bass, oboe, flute, piccolo, bass drum and a nest of traps, together with a fine harp, a xylophone, and about three octaves of cathedral pipes, Bohumir Kryl filled the big tent and the city with his music.

Tonight the entertainment triumph will be put on by Kryl's band.

Uel W. Lankin, an expert on public school questions, will speak on "The People and the Public Schools" tomorrow morning, while "The Cambridge Players will furnish the prelude tomorrow afternoon. A "Safety-First" Mineral.

Asbestos is a potential life-saver. We do not all realize, perhaps, that the fire proof theater curtain is made of asbestos, which is rock matter but nevertheless almost as soft and pliable as cotton or woolen fabric. Asbestos has of course many other uses. Its incombustibility and its fibrous structure make it one of the most useful minerals for many and various structural purposes. It is used in making lumber, roofing plaster, and stucco. Houses that are built largely of asbestos afford their occupants not only complete protection from fire because it is a "nonconductor," but assure them also the comfort of freedom from extreme heat and cold.

The asbestos-producing industry of the United States is growing. For many years we have been the greatest manufacturers and users of asbestos, drawing our raw material from Canada, but we are now getting some excellent fibre in our own country.

All rocks contain some water, but some, such as the granites, carry only an inappreciable amount. Sandstone, on the other hand, has an absorptive capacity of a gallon or more of water to the cubic foot of rock and is the best water bearer of the solid rocks.

A Janitor's Institute was recently held in Salt Lake county, Utah, under the direction of the county superintendent of schools. Several problems of school janitor service were discussed and the meeting went on record as favoring special training for school janitors.

SIMPSON SECOND IN HURDLE.

Bosworth Athlete Makes High Hurdles at 'Frisco in 15 Seconds Flat.

Robert Simpson of the University of Missouri, a resident of Bosworth and who broke the records in the Normal track meet here in 1913, ran second in the high hurdles in the National Championship Meet of the Amateur Athletic Union at San Francisco Saturday. He was beaten by Murray.

The time was 15 flat, equalling the world's record held jointly by Simpson and Kelley of California.

Simpson was fourth in the low hurdles. Murray again was first, in the time of 23 3-5 seconds. This, too, is a world's record, established by Kraenzlein of Pennsylvania in 1898 and equalled once before by Murray, in the Far Western Championship Meet at

San Francisco last Saturday.

Murray is a Leland Stanford Junior University man.

Others entered in the big hurdles were Kelley of California, Case of Illinois, Jacobs of Oklahoma and Nelson of Spokane.

NEW MAY CARRY TYPHOID GERM.

Believes Domestic Fowl May Endanger Life From Fever.

The problem of the carrier in various infectious diseases has long vexed the sanitarian who is bent on discovering every possible mode of transmission and every portal of entry for the germs. Human carriers of typhoid and diphtheria germs, themselves immune to attacks of the malady, are now watched for in nearly every community, and the danger which they represent as a latent source of infection is clearly recognized.

Doubtless, says The Journal of the American Medical Association, many of these possibilities for spreading disease without the presence of detectable symptoms are still unrecognized. In typhoid, it has been shown that some of the lower animals may be made typhoid carriers; and attention has lately been directed to such animals as might be expected to become carriers by reason of their environment or habits.

Mitchell and Bloomer of the bacteriology laboratory of the University of Missouri have pointed out that the chicken is a domestic animal which might often come into contact with typhoid discharges. The mechanical transference of typhoid bacilli on the feet and bill of a chicken does, without question, occur.

By various methods they have attempted to follow the germ. From the work of the Missouri bacteriologists it would seem that the hen is highly resistant to typhoid. It not only fails to take the disease, but apparently cannot be made a carrier except in a mechanical way.

MEXICANS SLAIN IN FIGHT WITH TEXANS

Six Raiders Killed and Five Americans Wounded.

Brownsville, Tex., Aug. 9.—Mexican outlaws and Texas rangers and county officers engaged in two battles near Norias, Tex., sixty miles north of Brownsville, according to reports received here. The telegraph operator at Norias has sent out a call for help. A special train which left here for Norias with rangers and county officers returned here, and ten minutes later started back to Norias. It will stop at Harlingen to take on a detachment of the United States soldiers.

Troop B, Third United States cavalry left here early today for the northern part of Cameron county. It was reported the Mexicans attacking Norias ranch numbered fully 200. Six Mexicans have been killed and five Americans wounded.

Fritz George, night watchman of the Lyford (Tex.) jail, was shot and seriously wounded before daybreak. The act is charged to the Mexican outlaws. A party of farmers near Lyford also was fired upon by unknown persons a few hours earlier in the night.

MEXICANS EATING DOGS

Maytorena Rushes Cattle Across Line. American Troops Are Ready.

Nogales, Ariz., Aug. 9.—General Calles, the Carranza commander, is drawing his lines closer about Nogales, Sonora, and is expected to attack at once.

In anticipation of a battle, a double guard of the American soldiers has been placed on the international line and a machine gun platoon has been stationed on Titcomb hill, overlooking the city. United States cavalrymen are patrolling the border near the city.

Maytorena insists he will resist Calles' attack. Informed of the fact that the American troops had received artillery reinforcements, Maytorena replied: "We have guns, too." Maytorena rushed 850 head of his cattle across the line into the United States. The population of Sonora is reported to be subsisting on burros, horses and dogs.

Scott Thinks Mission Will Be Success.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Major General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the United States army, is on his way to the Mexican border emphatically confident of his ability to do much in bringing the warring factions of the southern republic into agreement. He expects to accomplish his aim through his personal friendship with General Villa. General Scott passed through Chihuahua en route from Washington to El Paso.

MEXICAN OUTLOOK LESS ENCOURAGING

Washington, Aug. 9.—The Pan-American conference initiated here last week to devise a plan for restoring government in Mexico probably will be resumed in New York city next Wednesday.

Administration officials, who were inclined to believe that a peace parley between Mexican factions might soon result independent of the appeal to the military leaders, which will go forward from Pan-American nations, are not so sanguine now.

Reports from Mexico City that Dr. Juan J. Ortega, the Guatemalan minister there, had been given his passport by General Carranza and ordered to leave the country within twenty-four hours, were responsible for this change of mind. Inasmuch as Guatemala is represented in the Latin-American conference, Carranza's action is regarded here as indicating a disposition of unfriendliness toward the conference.

MULFORD GETS FIRST MONEY

Judge's Decision in Des Moines Auto Race to Be Protested.

LITTLE CHANGE IN INJURED.

Coroner Decides No Inquest Will Be Necessary Over Men Killed in Race. Joe Cooper's Body Taken to Sebring, O., For Burial.

Des Moines, Aug. 9.—An investigation into the awarding of prizes in Des Moines' tragic 300-mile speedway contest, in which two men were killed and two injured, seemed probable when it was announced that a protest would be filed with the Automobile Association of America.

After an all-night session, the decision of the judges following the race was reversed, and instead of Ralph De Palma being declared the winner, Ralph Mulford was given first place. Mulford's time was announced as 3:27:05.25.

Mulford was awarded the first prize of $5,000 and $100 by the judges for leading at 100 miles; De Palma second prize of $2,000 and $100 for leading at 200 miles. Eddie O'Donnell, in third place, gets $1,000. The other prize winners were W. W. Brown, fourth place; W. Barndollar, fifth; Pete Henderson, sixth, and W. J. Shunk, seventh place.

Tom Alley, who drove for H. W. Ogden, under an arrangement with Barney Oldfield, declared before leaving for Chicago that he intended to protest against the official ruling of the track officials. He said he was entitled to either fifth or sixth place.

Little Change in Injured. Coroner Koons decided that an inquest into the deaths of the two men killed on the speedway would not be necessary.

There is little change in the conditions of Driver Billy Chandler, who was seriously injured in the second of the accidents, in which his mechanical, Morris Keeling, was killed, or in Louis Piel, who was in the car in which Joe Cooper, the driver, was killed.

Cooper's body was taken to Sebring, O., his home. That of Keeling was sent to St. Paul. Funeral services for the two men, in which the other drivers participated, were held before the bodies were forwarded.

JUDGE FREEMAN RESIGNS

Grieved Over Sentencing Three Men to Penitentiary For Life.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Heartbroken over the fact that twenty years ago he imposed life sentences on three men whom he later believed innocent of the murders with which they were charged, Henry V. Freeman resigned as judge of the superior court. His resignation was forwarded to Governor Dunne at Springfield from his summer home at Harbor Point, Mich., where the jurist is attempting to regain his health.

The men sentenced by Judge Freeman were Thomas McNally, Charles Kurth and Edward Warren. They were charged with having murdered James Prunty and his son, Peter, in their home, on Nov. 15, 1893. A daughter also was shot, but recovered.

Plan Lifting of Russian Embargo.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Arranging final details to lift the Russian embargo on exports to the United States a conference here completed a tentative scheme for handling the traffic, representatives of the Russian embassy and the state and commerce departments participating. The plan will be cabled to the Russian minister of finance for indorsement. Under proposals made by the United States, Russian exports to this country will be assigned to the secretary of commerce and delivered by him to local consumers under guarantee that none of it will reach Russia's enemies by re-exportation.

Would Double Cadet Numbers.

St. Louis, Aug. 9.—Speaker Champ Clark announced he would introduce in the next congress a bill doubling the enrollment at the West Point and Annapolis academies. "The country can get all the volunteers it wants in forty-eight hours," said the speaker. "The great need is for officers to train them."

Wilson Plans Return to Capital.

Cornish, N. H., Aug. 9.—President Wilson, it became known, is planning to return to Washington to get in personal touch with recent developments in the Mexican situation, diplomatic exchanges with Great Britain and Germany and other pressing official business.

Philadelphia, Aug. 9.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Gifford Pinchot were among the speakers at a mass meeting held on the city hall plaza to protest against the conviction of John R. Lawson, the Colorado strike leader, of first degree murder.

CZAR SCORNS KAISER'S OFFER OF PEACE

Replies That Question Could No Now Be Raised.

London, Aug. 9.—Reuter's correspondent at Petrograd transmits the following:

"The Bourse Gazette learns from an unimpeachable source that the German emperor made an offer of peace to Russia last week, through the king of Denmark. The answer sent to the king stated that the question of peace negotiations could not be raised at the present time."

Replying to congratulations from the king of Wurttemberg on the fall of Warsaw, Emperor William, according to a press dispatch received here, telegraphed the following:

"Many hearty thanks for your congratulations. We can see in the fall of Warsaw a significant step on the road upon which the Almighty by His grace has led us hitherto. Relying on Him our glorious troops will continue to fight to an honorable peace."

WHY NAME YOUR FARM HOME

Author of Missouri Registration Bill Says Title to Place Increases Its Worth.

When on a journey through the country you pass by a farm with a neat sign on which appears such a name as "Grasslands," "Sunny Brook Farm," or "The Willows," don't you immediately imagine that a thrifty man who loves and takes pride in his home lives there?

William L. Nelson, assistant secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, would assuredly say, "yes," for he has long advocated naming farms and putting the name on the gate or on a post in the yard. Mr. Nelson has received a new sign for his own farm in Cooper county "Hope Haven" is the name.

"A farmer names his horses, his dog and even his pigs, so why shouldn't he name his home?" Mr. Nelson asks in the University Missourian. "He should use as much care in selecting the name for his home as for his children."

A name that has a particular bearing on the topography of the place or something connected with the farm is the best. Never should names of famous places or events be used.

"There are four main reasons for naming farms. First, it is only sensible that since so many other things about a farm are named the home should also be. Then by naming his home a farmer shows that he takes pride in it. The name has a commercial value also, as it can be used for a trade-mark. Also, when tourists see the name of a farm placed in a conspicuous place on it they become interested in it."

Mr. Nelson was the author of a bill passed in the state legislature in 1908 which provided that farmers should have the right to register names of their farms. Since then it has been his hobby to spread the custom. Now fifteen other states have adopted the plan. There are more named farms in Cooper county than in any other of Missouri, he says.

One Chautauqua 'Star' Makes Another In Victor Murdock

CONGRESSMAN VICTOR MURDOCK.

The story of how one head-liner on Maryville's chautauqua program really "made" another "star" by accident, thus far has been overlooked by the Redpath-Vawter press agents, but just the same the facts are admitted with pride by both parties in the case.

It was a quarter of a century or so ago, that a big awkward six-foot fellow, open faced and redhaired, began work as clerk of the circuit court in Kansas where Judge Manford Schoonover, the first chautauqua speaker of the week here, then presided. They called the young fellow "pink haired Vic" and "the kid from Wichita" in court, but he took this good-natured joshing well.

The joke that rubbed Vic's auburn locks in the wrong direction, however, came two years later when Judge Schoonover approached him solemnly one day and told him the clerkship was to be filled by a young Democrat. The judge poured forth a volley of his fatherly advice to boys with which he scored so great a hit this week, but Vic couldn't see the use in quitting a job because he happened to be a Republican like his dad. It was Vic's first defeat and he took it mightily hard. "I'll show some of you 'old heads' a thing or two, before I get through."

Vic admonished when he quit the circuit court. "I may get into politics myself."

Ten years later folks in Kansas were calling Vic, Congressman Murdock. For five terms he represented the "Big Eighth" Kansas district in the lower house, and he showed the old heads so well that for two terms he slid into office without an opposing candidate.

The Democrats liked him, too, and they should, for Victor Murdock then a Republican, now a sincere Progressive leader, has advocated more good Democratic doctrines than some Democrats themselves.

Last year while assured that he could go back to the lower house as he always had with ease, Victor jumped into a big senatorial fight in Kansas on the Bull Moose ticket and got a shameful drubbing at the polls. Today a private citizen for the first time in a decade, Vic declares he is the happiest man in the universe.

Today Vic Murdock owns and edits the Wichita Eagle, the biggest newspaper in Kansas. Last year when Vic ran for the senate that same paper, considered the most valuable campaign booster in the state, discouraged and fought its owner in his senatorial race.

Other members of Vic's family controlled it then, and they sort of seemed to feel so sorry to see Vic pass up a sure thing job for a Bull Moose possibility, that they did their best to ruin his rivals.

But a mere defeat for the senate today hasn't discouraged Vic Murdock.

Yesterday was a big day in the Maryville chautauqua and nearly every seat was occupied during each entertainment. Today it is starting off just as well, if not better, for the famous Kryl band is the drawing card. Yesterday it was the Orphean Musical club, Dr. W. B. Dickinson, Victor Murdock and Arthur Kachel. Each
good in the line chosen.

Today the chautauqua started off at 9 o'clock this morning with an entertainment for the young folks in the nature of a "make-believe" trip to Europe under the direction of Miss Francis Knoffler, supervisor of the Junior chautauqua.

Then came an address on "Solving
the Rural Church Problems," by H. R.
McKeen.

"Vic" Murdock Urges Peace.
The red headed Progressive newspaper publisher and former congressman of Kansas—Victor Murdock—

W. B. DICKINSON.

drew down the house yesterday afternoon in a rather witty, entertaining
address, yet permeated all through with a serious vein on national matters
which concern all of us as individuals
and as a whole.

Mr. Murdock won loud applause
when he said that it was the business
of every man and woman to see to it that this country keeps out of the European war. He talked about the new enemies of liberty and found
them to be privilege and avarice.

In speaking of "the interests" he said that the new generation of American wealthy families was different from the founders of our big houses.
The wealth of these houses was not dissipating it was accumulating at dangerous rates along hard, narrow and bitter lines.

The speaker took a tremendous fall
out of the archaic customs of the

Bohumir Kryl

senate, and he told graphically his experience in saving five million dollars annually from the postal freight bill. It was this work that brought fame to Congressman Murdock, and he had an abundance of inside information to impart.

In conclusion, Mr. Murdock said that we ought to correct certain bad habits
foremost among which was the habit of the partisan mind, and the other habit
of taking things for granted.

Discusses Politics of Future.
In a little "on the side" talk yesterday with some friends Murdock got into a discussion of politics—the subjects he likes above all else. The gist of the talk was that Vic Murdock believes the Republicans next year will nominate either Senator Weeks of Massachusetts or William Howard Taft for president while the Democrats will place Wilson again in the ring.

Vic likewise expressed the belief that William Jennings Bryan might follow Roosevelt's plan and start a new party from the folds of the Democratic rank, with the plea for peace,
as the big plank of the platform.

Then the red headed Kansan vouchsafed the opinion that the Progressives would again turn to Roosevelt
or perhaps Hiram Johnson of California, as the man for the presidency.

Musical Preludes Good.
The musical preludes yesterday were again different. The Orphean male quartet appeared yesterday afternoon
and night, with W. G. Laye, first tenor,
E. H. Dennis, second tenor, E. W.
Crumaker, baritone and reader and V.
F. Henry, bass and crayon artist.

Their entire program was first class and delighted the large audiences. The reading in the afternoon by Mr. Crumaker was a musical monologue entitled, "O Memory."

The quartet's rendition of Bride-man's Twenty-Third Psalm will linger long in the public memory. Besides their vocal work, the company has a brass quartet—cornet, melophone and
first and second valve trombones.

At night they rendered Sawyer's
"The Trumpets," and closed their evening prelude with three interesting crayon sketches put on the easel by Mr. Henry during a monologue. One was "A Scene in the Country," another was a humorous sketch of a lady's hat "gradescaping" the view in church, and the sketch of a lake shore
in moonlight closed the prelude with a beautiful rendition of Root's "The Old Canoe."

Interpreted "The Music Master."

Arthur Kachel gave a monologue interpretation of "The Music Master"
last night, instead of "The Melting Pot" as announced on the program.
Mr. Kachel is master of his art. Without scenery or costume he peopled the stage with fourteen different characters and with scenes transpiring on two continents, and never once did his characters merge.

On account of its length a number of persons attending last night, tired of the interpretation, but not because
of any inferiority in the work of Mr.
Kachel.

This morning, applied Christianity
had the stage at the chautauqua tent.
H. R. McKeen, a minister who himself has largely solved the problem in a remarkable personal experience, spoke on "Solving the Rural Church Problems." Mr. McKeen is a forceful personality, a pleasing rapid-fire speaker,
a man of ideals and of large experience in his chosen field.

Mr. McKeen assured his audience

TEUTONS PUSH ON

GERMANS CONTINUE DRIVE ON RUSSIAN HORDE IN POLAND.

OCCUPY EAST VISTULA

Serock, North of Warsaw and Forts
Near Novogeorgievsk Captured—
Heavy Fighting in Caucasus.

London, Aug. 9.—The Germans continue to make progress in their efforts to cut off the Russian retreat from the Polish salient. They have commenced
an attack on the fortresses of Kovno
and Ossowetz, which are among the obstacles to be overcome to reach the railway running from Warsaw through Vilna and Pinsk to Petrograd. They have taken the minor fortress of Je-rock at the junction of the Narew and the Bug and have crossed the Vistula
near Warsaw. Farther south General Woytsch is advancing eastward, but Field Marshal Mackenzon is being stubbornly resisted and apparently making slow progress.

On the whole, the daring scheme
mapped out by the Germans as a sequel to the capture of Warsaw—the destruction of the Russian army—is unfolding slowly.

With the three main railways, besides those built since the war, in his hands, it is believed in military circles here that Grand Duke Nicholas
will be able to extricate his Warsaw army. The events in the east, however, will continue to rivet the attention of the world for some time to come.

The Germans have gained minor
successes in the Argonne forests,
where the crown prince's army has been trying for weeks to find a weak spot in the French defenses, but their efforts to recover lost trenches on the Linkeopf, in the Vosges, is declared to have cost them dearly.

There has been rather heavy fighting in the Caucasus between the Russians and the Turks, but the official reports are contradictory.

Balkan Parleys.

There is much interest in the diplomatic negotiations in the Balkan capitals, the reports from which indicate that Serbia at last is willing to cede Macedonia to Bulgaria, but that the Greek government is opposing any suggestion that it should return Kavala, the seaport in the vilayet of Saloniki, to Bulgaria. It is thought, however, that this opposition may be changed when M. Venizelos returns to power, which is expected when the Greek parliament reassembles early in September.

ELMO CHAUTAUQUA OPENS TODAY

Dr. Charles F. Sheldon, Author of "In His Steps," Will Appear
During Week.

The Elmo chautauqua opened for a six-days "run." A fairly large crowd attended the attractions today and everything points to a fine attendance
throughout the week, it is said.

The star attraction of the Elmo chautauqua will be a lecture by Dr. Chas.
F. Sheldon of Topeka, Kan., author of
"In His Steps" and several other well known books of a religious nature.

BUYS GLAZE PROPERTY.

S. E. Fisher Pays $5,000 For Mulberry

William Glaze has sold his residence property on North Mulberry street to S. E. Fisher living northwest of the city. The purchase price was $5,000.
Mr. Glaze will go to Grand Island,
Nebr., to make his home in future

For the present Mr. Fisher will remain on his farm but will later move

TO HASTEN FREIGHT PARCELS.

Pennsylvania Railroad to Send Shipments From East Without Delay.

Hereafter when an eastern shipper
has a small package of freight to go to any of the more important cities in the northwest, in the Missouri river territory or in the southwest, he will be able to send it in a car that will go straight through to destination without the package being transferred to any other car.

The Pennsylvania railroad has inaugurated a practice of sending through cars of merchandise freight by its Star-Union line daily from New York to far western points, regardless of the quantity of freight offered for shipment.

Heretofore small consignments of merchandise from New York to far western points have been transferred
at various junction points enroute, thereby causing delay. The inauguration of the improved service by the Pennsylvania means that hereafter
merchants will be assured of a quicker
and safer transportation service than they have hitherto enjoyed.

DRAINAGE BOARD TO MEET

Improvers of 102 River Channel Will Confer Wednesday Relative to Resuming Work.

The 102 river drainage district board will meet at the courthouse here at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning to discuss propositions relative to resuming work
on the dredging south of Pickering.
The call for the meeting was made today by the officials of the board.

The principal topic to be discussed is to determine if the owners of the dredge boat—The Marion Steam Shovel company of Marion, O.—shall raise and aright the now overturned and wrecked dredge boat, or whether the drainage district board will have that
to do.

Work on arighting and repairing the boat was begun today by a force of men.

J. E. CAMERON OUT

HEAD OF NORMAL AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT RESIGNS.

R. A. KINNAIRD GOES IN

Leader in Aggie Work at State School
5 Years Accepts Position in Iowa
—Effective September 1.

John E. Cameron, of the agricultural and biology department of the State Normal school, has resigned his position, effective September 1, to accept a position with the Iowa State University at Iowa City as associate teacher in general science work in the education department and also in the botany department.

Mr. Cameron is a graduate of that university as is also Mrs. Cameron,
who lived at that place before coming to Maryville.

Mr. Cameron has been in charge of the agriculture department at the State Normal School since the opening of the institution five years ago. His work has been very creditable and he has built up the agriculture department here that is far superior to that of any of the other Normal schools in the state.

R. A. Kinnaird, who has been connected with the State Normal school
for a year, will be the head of the agriculture department. A successor will be selected soon by the board of regents to take the place of Mr. Cameron.

SUN IN ECLIPSE TOMORROW

Old Sol Will Be Darkened But Not in America—Friday Is Thirteenth.

The sun will be in total eclipse tomorrow night in southeastern Asia,
southeastern Africa, Borneo, Java, Madagascar, eastern Japan and the Philippine Islands, but not in America, except in the Hawaiian Islands and in Alaska. It is the second and last solar eclipse of the year, the first having occurred February 13. It was not visible in America either.

Another peculiarity will come this week, and the only one of the year 1915. Next Friday will be the thirteenth of August, which signifies to many that any attempt at action that day will result in failure. Railroads
also anticipate a decrease in travel
that day, especially by the superstitious.

TO GIVE FREE ENTERTAINMENT.

Rev. Father Cummins to Lecture at Burlington Junction.

FEDERALS WIN 2-1

MAKES WINNING RUN ON "WALK" STEAL AND OVERTHROW.

MAY STAY WITH TEAM

Rapps of Western League Only Scorer,
May Remain—Willey Fanned 17
—Scott Makes Good Play.

A walk, a nifty steal and a wild
throw to second to prevent the steal,
which resulted in an extra two bases,
brought Rapps home, and thereby won
for the Maryville Federals yesterday afternoon the game with the St. Joseph Tip Tops by a score of 2 to 1. It was a play not often seen, and would have been called a "bonhead" by some fans, had Rapps not succeeded. The base on balls was merely extended to second
without a halt at first.

Willey, pitching for the Feds struck out 17 men, but even at that was hit four times, two of them resulting in the lone run for the visitors in the seventh inning, with two men down.
Wasma, pitching for the Tip Tops,
struck out but five men, and was hit
the same number of times.

The game was well attended, in fact
the grand stand and bleachers were filled to overflowing. It was a good game too, there being few errors and no "bone head" plays to mar.

Rapps Gets Both Runs.

Rapps, the man who made the winning run in the eighth inning, comes from three seasons' work in the Western league, he being recently suspended by Jack Holland, manager of the St. Joseph Drummers, following an injury.

Rapps will probably play with the Feds next Sunday, when they meet the Stanberry Red Sox, on the home court.
It was Rapps who made both scores
in the game yesterday, though the first was with the assistance of Richardson, who got a two-bagger, following Rapps' two-base hit.

Marqui made the only run for the visitors in the seventh inning, when he got a single and was brought home by a two-bagger by Gears. They also got a man on third in the fifth inning, when Tilson let a "grass cutter"
through his legs on first and Wasma
made a two-bagger. A strike out saved the day.

Scotty Makes Good Play.

A mighty good play was made by Scott, playing short stop, yesterday,
when he picked a line drive off Wasma
back of second and threw the batter
out at the initial sack.

The line up of the Feds was: Morris,
1; Tilson, 1b; Carmichael, cf; Rapps,
3b; Richardson, c; Scott, ss; Miller, 2b;
Ernst, rf; Willey, p.

The line up of the Tip Tops was:
Rudy, 1; Slater, 2b; Stewart, 3b; Jennings, ss; Hopper, cf; Marqui, c; Gears, rf; Wasma, p; Hall, 1b.

The score: R. H. E.
Tip Tops 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 1 4 1
Maryville 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 2 5 3

ENTERTAINS HON. VIC MURDOCK.

Kansas Visitor Is Guest of Old Friend
in This City.

The Hon. Victor Murdock, ex-congressman from Kansas and editor of the Wichita (Kan.) Eagle, who spoke at the chautauqua yesterday afternoon
was the honored guest at a dinner
given last night by Harvey L. Haines
in his apartments over the Haines Dry Goods store.

The friendship of Mr. Murdock and
Mr. Haines is one of long standing.
Mr. Haines is a former Kansas man,
coming to this city sixteen months
ago and engaging in business.

Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock
and those who enjoyed the occasion
in the company of the distinguished guest were Judge W. C. Ellison, J. B.
Robinson, John Sewell, W. C. Pierce,
W. F. Phares, George Robb Ellison, Edward Keck, Bernard Chandler, J. S.
Shinabargar and W. A. Blagg.

Probate Court Term Opens.

The August term of the Probate court of Nodaway county opened today, with Judge W. H. Conn presiding.
About the usual number of cases are docketed for hearing this time.

RINGLING SHOWS MAY COME

If Free Site Is Granted Maryville Is to See Big Show Next Month—Advance Man Here.

Ringling Brothers shows will appear in Maryville early in September if a free site is furnished, according to notice received by the Commercial Club officials. The cost would not be large it is believed and the chance for bringing the attraction here now appears to be good.

A discussion of the proposition was
the principal topic at the weekly meeting of the board of directors of the club at noon today. No definite action was taken by the directors as a body,
but a committee was appointed to look into the matter and determine if such a proposition could be well met.

Maryville has been passed up by the larger shows for the last ten years, or since the Ringling Brothers were victims of many suits caused by the collapse of their show tent east of the Burlington tracks, during a severe storm.

Mr. Petit, advance man for the Ringling Brothers shows, was in Maryville
today to determine what the Commercial Club could do in this respect, and conferred with them at the meeting.
He and the special committee will "feel out" the situation slightly this afternoon and determine if the business men would be willing to grant
the request for free site and partially free license.

As it now stands, it would cost Ringling Brothers $175 license fee alone to appear here. The city charges a license of $100 for a show of that size
while the county would receive $75.

OBSERVES GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Stratford Saunders Married Fifty Years Tomorrow—Will Entertain 200 Friends.

The fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day will be reached tomorrow
by Mr. and Mrs. Stratford Saunders of Skidmore and the occasion will be celebrated with a reception to which 200
of their friends have been invited.

Mr. Saunders is 73 and his wife is a few years younger. They were married in Nodaway county, August 10, 1865. Mrs. Saunders, before her marriage was Miss Araminta Lawson and

HER BROTHER GETS IRON CROSS.

Miss Marie Meyer, Student at Normal
Last Year, Hears of Award to Navy Captain.

In a recent letter from her brother,
Ernest Meyer, who is a captain in the German navy, stationed at Kiel, Miss
Marie Meyer, a student at the State Normal school here last year and now
attending the University of Missouri,
was informed that the Iron cross had been awarded to him, according to the University Missourian of Columbia.
Probably owing to the strict censorship
in Germany, the reason for the award
was not stated.

Miss Meyer has a number of relatives in the war. Two of her cousins were killed at the front recently.

The Missourian also says that Miss Meyer has filed her declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States, being the first one ever filed by a woman in Boone county.
Miss Meyer is 24 years old and was born at Samotchin, Germany. Her last residence before coming to America was Berlin.

MANY HEAR TALKS

That the fate of the nation hung upon the wellbeing of the rural district. He spoke to promote the best country church, home and school. He pleaded for the very best for the rural community.

The minister of a country church had too often been either a "beginner" or an "ender," a man with no experience or a man worn out with other service Mr. McKee said.

Mr. McKee's work has been largely like that of the Rev. C. R. Green of the Harmony Community, who Dr. McKee spoke of in his address.

Kryl's Band Here Today.

The concert this afternoon by Bohumir Kryl's concert band, is being well attended. It is the only attraction of this afternoon or night, but at that it perhaps is the most attractive of all, and not only to the so-called music lovers, for anyone can enjoy Kryl's band.

With eight clarinets, six cornets, three French horns, three slide trombones, one euphonium, two double B brass horns, one string bass, oboe, flute, piccolo, bass drum and a nest of traps, together with a fine harp, a xylophone and about three octaves of cathedral pipes, Bohumir Kryl filled the big tent and the city with his music.

Tonight the entertainment triumphal will be put on by Kryl's band.

Uel W. Lambkin, an expert on public school questions, will speak on "The People and the Public Schools" tomorrow morning, while "The Cambridge Players" will furnish the prelude tomorrow afternoon. Ng Poan Chow, a Chinese orator, will be the speaker of the day, with an address on "China and Her Problems."

Ross Crane will entertain with cartoons and clay modeling tomorrow night following the portrayal of acts from several plays by the Cambridge Players.

A "Safety-First" Mineral.

Asbestos is a potential life-saver. We do not all realize, perhaps, that the fire proof theater curtain is made of asbestos, which is rock matter but nevertheless almost as soft and pliable as cotton or woolen fabric. Asbestos has of course many other uses. Its incombustibility and its fibrous structure make it one of the most useful minerals for many and various structural purposes. It is used in making lumber, roofing plaster, and stucco. Houses that are built largely of asbestos afford their occupants not only complete protection from fire because it is a "nonconductor," but assure them also the comfort of freedom from extreme heat and cold.

The asbestos-producing industry of the United States is growing. For many years we have been the greatest manufacturers and users of asbestos, drawing our raw material from Canada, but we are now getting some excellent fibre in our own country.

All rocks contain some water, but some, such as the granites, carry only an inappreciable amount. Sandstone, on the other hand, has an absorptive capacity of a gallon or more of water to the cubic foot of rock and is the best water bearer of the solid rocks.

A Janitor's Institute was recently held in Salt Lake county, Utah, under the direction of the county superintendent of schools. Several problems of school janitor service were discussed and the meeting went on record as favoring special training for school janitors.

SIMPSON SECOND IN HURDLE.

Bosworth Athlete Makes High Hurdles at Frisco in 15 Seconds Flat.

Robert Simpson of the University of Missouri, a resident of Bosworth and who broke the records in the Normal track meet here in 1913, ran second in the high hurdles in the National Championship Meet of the Amateur Athletic Union at San Francisco Saturday. He was beaten by Murray. The time was 15 flat, equalling the world's record held jointly by Simpson and Kelley of California.

Simpson was fourth in the low hurdles. Murray again was first, in the time of 23 3-5 seconds. This, too, is a world's record, established by Kraenzlein of Pennsylvania in 1898 and equalled once before by Murray, in the Far Western Championship Meet at

San Francisco last Saturday.

Murray is a Leland Stanford Junior University man.

Others entered in the big hurdles were Kelley of California, Case of Illinois, Jacobs of Oklahoma and Nelson of Spokane.

HEN MAY CARRY TYPHOID GERM.

Believes Domestic Fowl May Endanger Life From Fever.

The problem of the carrier in various infectious diseases has long vexed the sanitarian who is bent on discovering every possible mode of transmission and every portal of entry for the germs. Human carriers of typhoid and diphtheria germs, themselves immune to attacks of the malady, are now watched for in nearly every community, and the danger which they represent as a latent source of infection is clearly recognized.

Doubtless, says The Journal of the American Medical Association, many of these possibilities for spreading disease without the presence of detectable symptoms are still unrecognized. In typhoid, it has been shown that some of the lower animals may be made typhoid carriers; and attention has lately been directed to such animals as might be expected to become carriers by reason of their environment or habits.

Mitchell and Bloomer of the bacteriology laboratory of the University of Missouri have pointed out that the chicken is a domestic animal which might often come into contact with typhoid discharges. The mechanical transference of typhoid bacilli on the feet and bill of a chicken does, without question, occur.

By various methods they have attempted to follow the germ. From the work of the Missouri bacteriologists it would seem that the hen is highly resistant to typhoid. It not only fails to take the disease, but apparently cannot be made a carrier except in a mechanical way.

MEXICANS SLAIN IN FIGHT WITH TEXANS

Six Raiders Killed and Five Americans Wounded.

Brownsville, Tex., Aug. 9.—Mexican outlaws and Texas rangers and county officers engaged in two battles near Norias, Tex., sixty miles north of Brownsville, according to reports received here. The telegraph operator at Norias has sent out a call for help.

A special train which left here for Norias with rangers and county officers returned here, and ten minutes later started back to Norias. It will stop at Harlingen to take on a detachment of the United States soldiers.

Troop B, Third United States cavalry left here early today for the northern part of Cameron county. It was reported the Mexicans attacking Norias ranch numbered fully 200. Six Mexicans have been killed and five Americans wounded.

Fritz George, night watchman of the Lyford (Tex.) jail, was shot and seriously wounded before daybreak. The act is charged to the Mexican outlaws. A party of farmers near Lyford also was fired upon by unknown persons a few hours earlier in the night.

MEXICANS EATING DOGS

Maytorena Rushes Cattle Across Line. American Troops Are Ready.

Nogales, Ariz., Aug. 9.—General Calles, the Carranza commander, is drawing his lines closer about Nogales, Sonora, and is expected to attack at once.

In anticipation of a battle, a double guard of the American soldiers has been placed on the international line and a machine gun platoon has been stationed on Titcomb hill, overlooking the city. United States cavalrymen are patrolling the border near the city.

Maytorena insists he will resist Calles' attack. Informed of the fact that the American troops had received artillery reinforcements, Maytorena replied: "We have guns, too." Maytorena rushed 850 head of his cattle across the line into the United States. The population of Sonora is reported to be subsisting on burros, horses and dogs.

Scott Thinks Mission Will Be Success.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Major General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the United States army, is on his way to the Mexican border emphatically confident of his ability to do much in bringing the warring factions of the southern republic into agreement. He expects to accomplish his aim through his personal friendship with General Villa. General Scott passed through Chicago en route from Washington to El Paso.

MEXICAN OUTLOOK LESS ENCOURAGING

Washington, Aug. 9.—The Pan-American conference initiated here last week to devise a plan for restoring government in Mexico probably will be resumed in New York city next Wednesday.

Administration officials, who were inclined to believe that a peace parley between Mexican factions might soon result independent of the appeal to the military leaders, which will go forward from Pan-American nations, are not so sanguine now.

Reports from Mexico City that Dr. Juan J. Ortega, the Guatemalan minister there, had been given his passports by General Carranza and ordered to leave the country within twenty-four hours, were responsible for this change of mind. Inasmuch as Guatemala is represented in the Latin-American conference, Carranza's action is regarded here as indicating a disposition of unfriendliness toward the conference.

MULFORD GETS FIRST MONEY

Judge's Decision In Des Moines Auto Race to Be Protested.

LITTLE CHANGE IN INJURED.

Coroner Decides No Inquest Will Be Necessary Over Men Killed In Race. Joe Cooper's Body Taken to Sebring, O., For Burial.

Des Moines, Aug. 9.—An investigation into the awarding of prizes in Des Moines' tragic 300-mile speedway contest, in which two men were killed and two injured, seemed probable when it was announced that a protest would be filed with the Automobile Association of America.

After an all-night session, the decision of the judges following the race was reversed, and instead of Ralph De Palma being declared the winner, Ralph Mulford was given first place. Mulford's time was announced as 3:27:05.25.

Mulford was awarded the first prize of $5,000 and $100 by the judges for leading at 100 miles; De Palma second prize of $2,000 and $100 for leading at 200 miles. Eddie O'Donnell, in third place, gets $1,000. The other prize winners were W. W. Brown, fourth place; W. Bardollar, fifth; Pete Henderson, sixth, and W. J. Shunk, seventh place.

Tom Alley, who drove for H. W. Ogden, under an arrangement with Barney Oldfield, declared before leaving for Chicago that he intended to protest against the official ruling of the track officials. He said he was entitled to either fifth or sixth place.

Little Change In Injured. Coroner Koons decided that an inquest into the deaths of the two men killed on the speedway would not be necessary.

There is little change in the conditions of Driver Billy Chandler, who was seriously injured in the second of the accidents, in which his mechanic, Morris Keeling, was killed, or in Louis Piel, who was in the car in which Joe Cooper, the driver, was killed.

Cooper's body was taken to Sebring, O. his home. That of Keeling was sent to St. Paul. Funeral services for the two men, in which the other drivers participated, were held before the bodies were forwarded.

Grieved Over Sentencing Three Men to Penitentiary For Life.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Heartbroken over the fact that twenty years ago he imposed life sentences on three men whom he later believed innocent of the murders with which they were charged, Henry V. Freeman resigned as judge of the superior court. His resignation was forwarded to Governor Dunne at Springfield from his summer home at Harbor Point, Mich., where the jurist is attempting to regain his health.

The men sentenced by Judge Freeman were Thomas McNally, Charles Korth and Edward Warren. They were charged with having murdered James Prunty and his son, Peter, in their home, on Nov. 15, 1892. A daughter also was shot, but recovered.

WHY NAME YOUR FARM HOME

Author of Missouri Registration Bill Says Title to Place Increases Its Worth.

When on a journey through the country you pass by a farm with a neat sign on which appears such a name as "Grasslands," "Sunny Brook Farm," or "The Willows," don't you immediately imagine that a thrifty man who loves and takes pride in his home lives there?

William L. Nelson, assistant secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, would assuredly say, "yes," for he has long advocated naming farms and putting the name on the gate or on a post in the yard. Mr. Nelson has received a new sign for his own farm in Cooper county "Hope Haven" is the name.

"A farmer names his horses, his dog and even his pigs, so why shouldn't he name his home?" Mr. Nelson asks in the University Missourian. "He should use as much care in selecting the name for his home as for his children."

A name that has a particular bearing on the topography of the place or something connected with the farm is the best. Never should names of famous places or events be used.

"There are four main reasons for naming farms. First, it is only sensible that since so many other things about a farm are named the home should also be. Then by naming his home a farmer shows that he takes pride in it. The name has a commercial value also, as it can be used for a trade-mark. Also, when tourists see the name of a farm placed in a conspicuous place on it they become interested in it."

Mr. Nelson was the author of a bill passed in the state legislature in 1908 which provided that farmers should have the right to register names of their farms. Since then it has been his hobby to spread the custom. Now fifteen other states have adopted the plan. There are more named farms in Cooper county than in any other of Missouri, he says.

One Chautauqua 'Star' Makes Another In Victor Murdock

CONGRESSMAN VICTOR MURDOCK

The story of how one head-liner on Maryville's chautauqua program really "made" another "star" by accident, thus far has been overlooked by the Redpath-Vawter press agents, but just the same the facts are admitted with pride by both parties in the case.

It was a quarter of a century or so ago, that a big awkward six-foot fellow, open faced and red-haired, began work as clerk of the circuit court in Kansas where Judge Sanford Schoonover, the first chautauqua speaker of the week here, then presided. They called the young fellow "pink haired Vic" and "the kid from Wichita" in court, but he took this good-natured joshing well.

The joke that rubbed Vic's auburn locks in the wrong direction, however, came two years later when Judge Schoonover approached him solemnly one day and told him the clerkship was to be filled by a young Democrat. The judge poured forth a volley of his fatherly advice to boys with which he scored so great a hit this week, but Vic couldn't see the use in quitting a job because he happened to be a Republican like his dad. It was Vic's first defeat and he took it mighty hard.

"I'll show some of you 'old heads' a thing or two, before I get through,"

Vic admonished when he quit the circuit court. "I may get into politics myself."

Ten years later folks in Kansas were calling Vic, Congressman Murdock. For five terms he represented the "Big Eighth" Kansas district in the lower house, and he showed the old heads so well that for two terms he slid into office without an opposing candidate.

The Democrats liked him, too, and they should, for Victor Murdock then a Republican, now a sincere Progressive leader, has advocated more good Democratic doctrines than some Democrats themselves.

Last year while assured that he could go back to the lower house as he always had with ease, Victor jumped into a big senatorial fight in Kansas on the Bull Moose ticket and got a shameful drubbing at the polls. Today a private citizen for the first time in a decade, Vic declares he is the happiest man in the universe.

Today Vic Murdock owns and edits the Wichita Eagle, the biggest newspaper in Kansas. Last year when Vic ran for the senate that same paper, considered the most valuable campaign booster in the state, discouraged and fought its owner in his senatorial race.

Other members of Vic's family controlled it then, and they sort of seemed to feel so sorry to see Vic pass up a sure thing job for a Bull Moose possibility, that they did their boosting for his rivals.

But a mere defeat for the senate today hasn't discouraged Vic Murdock.
